

J Jason Toro and his wife Cory came to Calvary Temple Assembly of God (CTAG) as Lead Pastor in July 2017. Prior to arriving in Augusta, Pastor J traveled full time in Evangelism, with an emphasis on wholeness for the family and hope for the next generation. With a passionate desire to see people saved and transformed by the power of Jesus Christ, discipleship is the center of Pastor J's heart and ministry. Complimenting his ministry, CTAG's First Lady Cory provides direction and oversight to His Way Food Pantry and leads the Women's Ministry of the church.

Pastor J and Cory are blessed to by their three amazing children: Timothy 19, Austin 17, and Trinity 13, who joined their forever family shortly after birth, infusing them with joy and completing their family. When he is not inspiring the church family from the pulpit, Pastor J enjoys spending time in the outdoors with his a family, hunting, exploring, and ATV riding.

CTAG provides a community to begin or continue on a journey with Jesus Christ at the center.

Providing a greenhouse in which to grow, CTAG exists to bring a transformation, healing and restoration to all. A multi-generational and diverse house, CTAG seeks to experience the presence of God, welcomes all who come through the doors, and purposes to do life together.
